SUBSCRIBER SERVICES

Digital resources from Oxford University Press offer a range of key features free of charge to support usage within libraries. Depending on the resource, these include MARC records, COUNTER compliant usage statistics, OpenURL compliance, remote access, and technical support.

The screenshot displays the Oxford Reference interface. At the top, there are navigation links like 'About', 'What's New', 'Subscriber Services', 'Contact Us', and 'Take a Tour'. A search bar is visible with the text 'Search' and a magnifying glass icon. Below the search bar, there are tabs for 'Subject' and 'Reference Type'. The main content area features a book cover for 'The Oxford Dictionary of New Zealandisms' by Tony Deveson. The text describes it as a landmark contribution to New Zealand English, collecting distinctive words and usages. It mentions that the dictionary contains over 6,000 entries and covers a wide range of domains and areas of life. A 'Find Print Edition in Library' button is present. To the right, there is a biographical note about Tony Deveson, who is the Senior Editor of the New Zealand Dictionary Centre at Victoria University of Wellington and an Adjunct Professor at the University of Canterbury. Below the book information, there is a 'BIBLIOGRAPHIC INFORMATION' section with details like Publisher (Oxford University Press), Print ISBN (9780195584974), Current Online Version (2014), and eISBN (9780195597189). At the bottom, there is a navigation menu with 'ALL CONTENTS' and 'ENTRIES'. The 'ENTRIES' section shows a grid of letters from A to Z, with 'A&P' selected. Below the grid, there are links for 'A&P Show', 'A.C.', 'AB', 'abolition', 'Aboriginal', 'Aborigine', and 'absentee'.
